SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION OF PAIGE NASH
14

15 To The Honorable District Judge:

16 Now Comes Paige Nash (“Objector”), and files this her Supplemental Objection,
17 and would show the Court as follows:

18 In Paige Nash’s objection previously filed in this case (Doc. 147), she stated that 19 “[t]his objector hereby incorporates all objections made in this litigation.” (Objection p.
20

21 2). Objector Nash specifically incorporates in her objections the following:

22 1. Objection for the State of Texas (Doc. 158):
23

24 (a) “Texas consumers [will] recover nothing, though they will be bound 25 by the release negotiated on their behalf” (p. 3).

26 (b) Texas law provides remedies for tax challenge (p. 5-10).

27 (c) Texas is grandfathered under ITFA and the Lawyers knew it (p. 10-28 13).

1 (d) AT&T's customers fare better under Texas law than under the
2 settlement (p. 10-16).

3 2. Objections to proposed settlement (Doc. 134).

4 (a) Objectors to the Court's consideration of certification or approval of
5 the settlement agreement (p. 2-5 ending at "F").

6 (b) The alleged monetary relief to the Texas subclass is illusory (p. 8-9
7 ending at "B").

8 (c) "The settling parties have not met their burden of proof" (p. 11).

9
10 The above objections are incorporated into Objector Nash's previously filed
11 objections to (a) give fair notice of the exact objections incorporated and (b) to avoid 12 duplicity.
